

SUMMER 23 COLLECTIONS

STEP INTO SPRING

Say hello to Spring with the latest portfolio of evoking distinct home stylings with striking concepts, palettes, and textures.

The latest interior trends have been imaginatively interpreted in this season's launch. From illustrative geometric prints to tactile velvets brimming with depth and intrigue, our latest S/S 23 collections are set to be the cornerstone of the most contemporary spaces.

Our Spring launch incorporates four new collections designed for a range of spaces and furnishings, from drapery and upholstery to smaller accent pieces.

Whether you are planning an interior refresh ready for the brighter seasons or simply gathering ideas to steer future plans, look to our latest portfolio of designs for inspiration.

CUBA

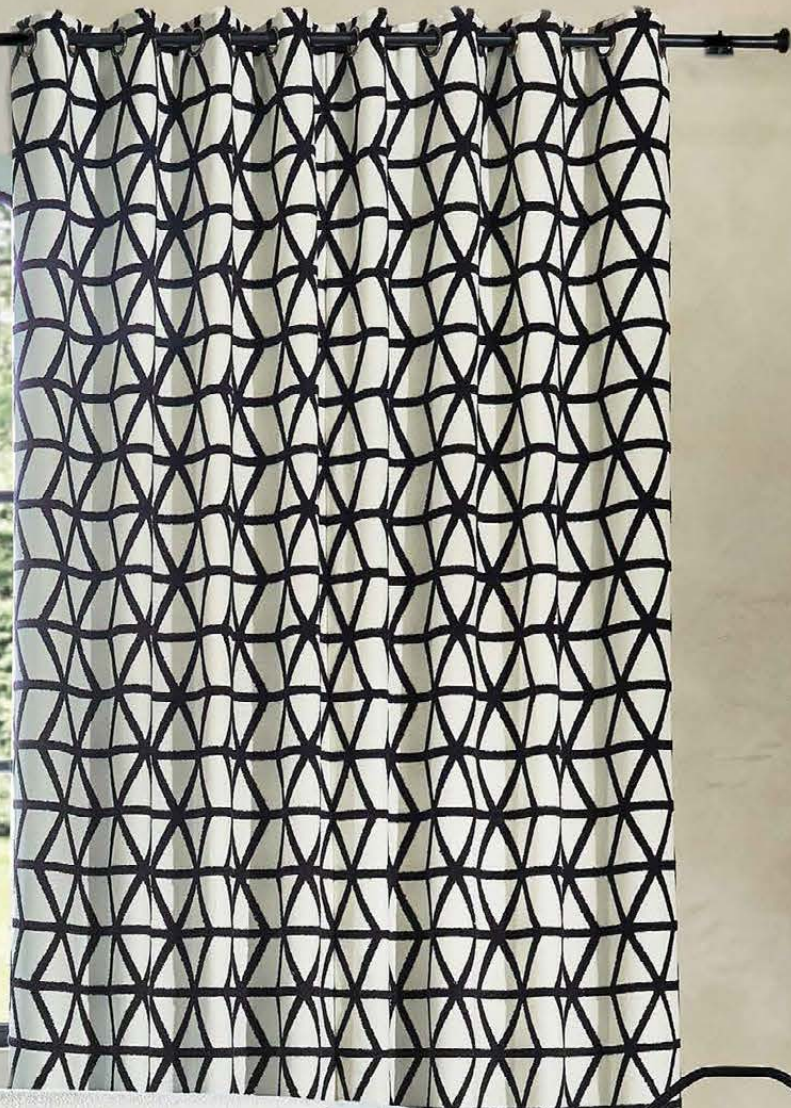

Maximalist design takes a new direction in Cuba, an inspired portfolio of geometrics showcased through a combination of prints and embroideries. All suitable for upholstery, the collection's conversational prints are complemented by a subtly textured base cloth for an understated finish. A trio of impactful embroideries create depth and intrigue, heightened in impact by prints channelling characterful Cuban architecture. The revival of 70s interiors has been at the forefront of the inspiration for Cuba's palette, with fresh pastel tones adding a contemporary twist on the timeless theme.
